

WITNESSES TESTIFY IN CASE TODAY

State Pushing Richardson Case and Making Good Time

EVIDENCE IS SIMILAR

To That Introduced in Previous Trials of Prisoners Charge- ed With Lynching.

There was no time lost Wednesday morning in beginning the James Richardson murder trial before Judge W. T. Devor. The state's witnesses were called by Clerk Larason, were sworn and the first witness, Dr. L. L. Mariott, ex-coroner was called by five minutes after nine o'clock. He was not present and in quick succession Dr. B. F. Barnes, Dr. J. G. Shiner and Coroner Dr. W. E. Wylarch were called, none being present. The court was plainly vexed and asked if these doctors had been properly subpoenaed. Prosecutor Smythe replied that they had, and had also been specially notified to be present.

It was found that Dr. Mariott's train from St. Louisville, was two hours late, and this was given as an excuse for him, but the court ordered the sheriff to get in the others who lived in Newark, as quickly as possible. Dr. Barnes came in, took the stand and was examined by Mr. Smythe. He described the autopsy, which he performed at McGonagle's morgue, assisted by Drs. Shiner, Mariott, Wylarch, and the wounds found on the body of Carl Etherington. There were a number of scalp wounds, several contused wounds about the head and face, and a cut on the right side of the neck near the jugular vein made by some sharp instrument as a knife, and a dark mark around the neck. In his opinion death was caused by strangulation. He had never seen Carl Etherington alive.

Cross examined by Mr. Martin: "The stab wound on the neck was through the skin; examined it carefully; it was not a dangerous wound."

Lemuel Smith.

"Was in the West End about noon, July 8th, last; was at Last Chance saloon and saw a crowd gather near the park; went out there and saw Etherington standing on the bank; a crowd of about twenty-five or thirty about him; Howard came up and hit Etherington on the head with a black-jack and Etherington shot him; he then ran west on the Hebron road and was stopped by William McKinley and Ed Cappel, who brought him back toward the crowd and he was pretty badly beaten up before he was brought to the Last Chance saloon; could not really swear that anybody struck him as I didn't actually see the blows fall; I was convicted of an assault and battery on Etherington."

Cross examined: "Didn't see defendant in that crowd or see him strike Etherington."

Present coroner of Licking county.

"Last 8th of July was acting coroner, first saw body of man known as Carl Etherington in gutter at southeast corner of public square; ordered body to McGonagle's and post mortem was held." Witness described wounds on body as heretofore, especially wound on neck, which he thought had been inflicted with some sharp instrument, and was only skin deep; also black and blue mark around the neck; thought death ensued from strangulation; saw rope there.

By Mr. Martin: "Examined body closely at morgue; took a memorandum; Dr. Mariott took this, think stab wound was on left side; didn't touch jugular vein; it only cut open the skin."

Emmanuel Blount.

By Smythe: Described the beating of Etherington out at the park. He lived on Williams street and joined crowd when he saw the disturbance. He didn't see Howard shot, as he got there afterward and the crowd was taking Etherington to the Last Chance; he showed rough handling; the crowd was noisy, yelling "kill him; hang him." Witness said crowd wanted to get a rope when they got to the Last Chance; heard nothing "about something to occur that night."

By Martin: "Didn't see any colored man strike Etherington."

Dr. L. L. Mariott.

By Smythe: "Was coroner July 8th, 1910; came to Newark that night and found body said to be Carl Etherington in street at southeast corner of square and ordered it to McGonagle's morgue, where an autopsy was held; I removed a rope from around the neck." Witness then described wounds on body, saying stab wound was in his

EARTHQUAKE VISITS MEXICO CITY TODAY DOING MUCH DAMAGE

Mexico City, June 7.—Thousands of people who crowded into this city to welcome Madero today were panic stricken by an earthquake shock which seriously damaged many of the city's buildings. Ten soldiers are reported to have been crushed to death in the barracks. Not a prisoner in the Bedlam prison escaped injury, but so far as is known none were killed. Fears are entertained that great damage and probably heavy loss of life was caused south of this city. Communication with this section is broken.

The first rumbling began before daylight and a panic ensued. The darkness added to the confusion. Men, women and children ran into churches and prayed for deliverance and safety. The police and soldiers, aided by clear-headed citizens, threw themselves into the breach and soon restored a fair semblance of order.

New York, June 7.—The cable department of the Western Union today reported that it had received advices from the South saying that between 50 and 75 people were killed this morning in Mexico City.

CIRCUIT COURT WILL TAKE UP THE COX CASE

Cincinnati, June 7.—Instead of deciding Prosecutor Hunt's plea to mandamus Judge Dickson in the Cox perjury case, as was expected today, the circuit court this morning announced that it would hear evidence in the case. This means they will examine books and evidence and go into every detail, and in the end dispose of the case.

MADERO HAS ARRIVED AT MEXICO CITY

Mexico City, June 7.—Madero arrived here today. The greatest decorations in the history of the city had been placed to do him honor. Triumphant arches span all the principal streets. Flowers were strewn in Madero's path by society women and young alike and thousands of school children sang the national anthem.

Thirty-four years, six months and 8 days ago Rebel Leader Diaz marched into Mexico City at the head of his victorious army. Madero came in on a Pullman today with a guard of honor, accompanied by six trainloads of capitalists, business men and politicians, to say nothing of the bands. After the formal ceremonies of welcome were finished, Madero and his wife went to the home of his father, where they will remain indefinitely. Madero may review the troops here today and attempt to remove any traces of bitterness which may have been left by the recent fighting.

TO PROTECT FATHER.

Bellefontaine, O., June 7.—That Burr Kerns and five friends had gone to the Beer home with a rope for the purpose of hanging John Beer is the defense of Gilbert Beer, aged 22 years, who admits killing Burr Kerns. He says he did so to protect his father, whom he believed was in danger.

LIQUOR TRAFFIC REGULATION BY MODEL LICENSE

Strong Plea By National Wholesale Liquor Dealers—Insist on Law Enforcement.

Chicago, June 7.—The sixteenth annual meeting of the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers' association opened here yesterday, the members being welcomed by Mayor Carter H. Harrison. A number of addresses opened the day's session, the tenor of all of them being for the uplift of the saloon and for more thorough regulation.

President Morris F. Westheimer of Cincinnati, started the discussion along this line, saying in his opening address:

"The National Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League has stated that the Anti-Saloon League intends to concentrate its efforts on the election of United States Senators and Representatives who will be pledged to pass Federal laws to remove liquor from the protection of all interstate commerce laws.

"No more important matter can come before this convention than that of preparing ourselves to prevent the Anti-Saloon League from carrying out its boast to control national legislation; and I recommend that before we adjourn some plan be adopted, nationwide in its scope, which shall enable us to give this question the attention it imperatively demands.

"There is no doubt that the trade suffers in the minds of the public because of the tremendous increase in illicit distillation, but it is a matter of great comfort to know that no member of this association has been charged with 'moonshining.'

"Illicit distillation prospers almost exclusively in those states that endeavor to enforce statutory prohibition. It seems probable that with the opening of prohibition states to proper

POSTPONED TILL FRIDAY IS ACTION OF GRAND JURY IN BRIBE CASES

Columbus, O., June 7.—After almost 12 hours of examination, Representative Owen J. Evans was released at noon yesterday from further catechism by the grand jury, arrangements for his return having been made by Prosecuting Attorney Edward S. Turner.

Soon thereafter the confessing legislator, accompanied by his wife, left the city for an unknown destination. Since yesterday morning he has not seen any of his associates in the general assembly nor any of the lobby.

Two of the latter class spent practically the whole afternoon and night about Evans' former hotel and bore all the appearance of men badly worried. If they were seeking him they were at the wrong place, for Evans spent the night in a private house under the surveillance of County Detective Charles McGannon.

After he had finished his evidence the grand jury adjourned until this morning, when it took up Franklin county local matters and will recess until Friday, when a report containing indictments is expected.

A number of legislators have been discussed as probable victims of the grand jury clutch, and in addition there were rumors that some outsiders, who furnished bribe money, had been trapped.

It is known absolutely that the grand jury has sent summons to a number of persons who are outside of this county, and that the subpoenas are now in the hands of special deputy sheriffs who have been doing detective work for the state.

They are wanted as corroborating witnesses in matters which were disclosed by Evans, who, it is understood, made a complete statement of all improper matters in which he was involved, both as a member of the house and of the "steering committee."

PLANNING FOR AN AERO MEET AT COUNTRY CLUB

Newark will in all probability be the first city in Ohio of anywhere near its size to have what might be called an aviation carnival, which will be at once spectacular, thrilling, educational and instructive.

C. J. Jones of Springfield, general manager of this division of the Ohio Electric Company was in Newark today in conference with the officers and directors of the Board of Trade, under whose auspices the meeting will be given, with a view of co-operation with this body to make the affair a success from the angle of the traffic accommodations, if it should be given.

This meeting will be the first of its kind ever attempted in Newark, in fact entirely new in its principal features to the people of Central Ohio, and there is no doubt but that thousands of people will come to Newark to witness it, and C. J. Strobel, under whose management it will be held, has impressed upon the Board of Trade officers the advisability, yes, the necessity, of arranging to accommodate the crowds, by having the best traction facilities possible to accommodate the vast crowds and land them safely in Newark on these two big days.

The "aerfest" will be held from the grounds of the Country Club, a couple of miles west of Newark, and as said before, will be under the auspices of the board of trade and the management of C. J. Strobel, the latter being well equipped to successfully bring a project of this kind to a successful issue.

A chance will be given for those who witness the flights to get a line on the progress made in aerial navigation times long ago, until the thrilling present. There will be an old-fashioned hot air balloon ascension and parachute leap, a flight by a passenger-carrying dirigible balloon, and finally maneuvers by an aeroplane, which is the last word in airship construction.

After the conference with Mr. Jones, the arrangements concerning the disposition of concessions and some other details, authoritative and definite announcement of the final plans will be made and a date will be selected in the near future.

MUST KILL SEN. ROOT'S AMENDMENT

President Taft Wants This Done to Save Reciprocity

DEMOCRATS TO AID HIM

Will Not Make Effort to Attach the House Free List Bill to Measure.

Washington, June 7.—Abandoning hope of defeating in committee the Root amendment to the Canadian reciprocity bill affecting the print paper and wood pulp clause of the agreement, friends of the measure yesterday began on the floor of the house an active campaign to prevent acceptance of the Root provision.

The president showed anxiety over the situation when, after an executive session of the senate finance committee yesterday, he appealed to the Democratic senators to stand out against the amendment. Senator Stone expressed to the president his confidence that far more than a majority would be found voting against the Root and all other amendments that may be offered.

The administration throughout has contended that amendment to the bill would be fatal, and by reason of this contention the measure was passed by the house in the form desired by the state department. The same argument was advanced when the finance committee, and Chairman Penrose of the committee has endeavored to prevent consideration of amendments.

Secretary Knox did not appear before the committee yesterday to explain the inwardness of the agreement and to urge the committee to report the measure to the senate in its present form. He was expected to devote considerable attention to the Root amendment, explaining wherein it would nullify or postpone the agreement, but he sent word that previous engagements prevented his appearance.

The principal fight on the floor will be based on the Root provision, but whether it be accepted or rejected, the friends of reciprocity are now hopeful of success. The reason for their exhilaration is found in the decision of a majority of the Democratic senators to make no effort to attach the house free list bill to the reciprocity measure.

A decided majority of the Democrats are favorable to reciprocity, but until comparatively recently many of them, made the condition that the Canadian bill should receive no consideration except in connection with the pet Democratic measure.

They have abandoned that attitude and now announce that they will oppose all amendments of whatever nature. They have even gone to the extent of rejecting overtures from the progressives, which are coupled with a promise on the part of the latter to tack the free list to the reciprocity bill.

"We want a vote on the free list," they say, "and shall insist on having it, but it must be separate from reciprocity."

HODGE DISCOVERED NEST OF SNAKES

Kenton, O., June 7.—While working in a field near here today, William Hodge stepped into a nest of snakes. One large blue racer showed fight and attacked him.

Hodge called for help and two men came to his aid. The snake was killed. It measured six feet and four inches. Two other snakes were dispatched, one a blue racer, measuring six feet, and a spotted milk snake of four feet.

MOTORCYCLIST IS KILLED.

New Philadelphia, O., June 7.—The first fatal motorcycle accident occurred here when Walter Swenderman, 22 years old, crashed into a telephone pole, breaking his neck and fracturing his skull. He died instantly. His machine struck the pole with so much force that the pole was moved four inches.

WANT DIAZ TO RETURN

St. Louis, June 7.—General Diaz, former Mexican president, will spend some time in Southern France, according to former Minister of Finance Limantour here today. Limantour expects to meet Diaz in France some time this month, and he says that he hopes to induce him to return to Mexico.

Washington, June 7.—After almost 12 hours of examination, Representative Owen J. Evans was released at noon yesterday from further catechism by the grand jury, arrangements for his return having been made by Prosecuting Attorney Edward S. Turner.

Soon thereafter the confessing legislator, accompanied by his wife, left the city for an unknown destination. Since yesterday morning he has not seen any of his associates in the general assembly nor any of the lobby.

TODAY'S GAMES. Chillicothe at Hamilton. Portsmouth at Springfield. Newark at Lima. Lancaster at Marion.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS. Lima, 8; Newark, 5. Chillicothe, 8; Hamilton, 6. Portsmouth, 3; Springfield, 2. Marion, 5; Lancaster, 0.

Lima, O., June 7.—After having taken a substantial lead in the early innings Tuesday afternoon, Al Newnam's Molders fumbled and Lima scoring one run in the sixth, went way ahead in the seventh and bagged the contest by an 8 to 5 score.

Stepping lightly into the seventh inning three runs to the good, the confident visitors suffered the prize overthrow of the season. Goshorn was pitching like a bear and the Molders were smiling over the prospects for a second victory. Six innings had rolled by and Grover had looked like anything but an astronaut and the most loyal fans were hardly expecting the terrific explosion which occurred in the seventh, four hits, two walks, a hit by pitcher and a couple of passed balls, netting three or four games.

Eddie Donalds had Newnam's troupe pleading for mercy during the last five innings and will get credit for winning the game, going in the contest with the score 4 to 1 against him. These four runs looked mountain high in view of the fact that Goshorn seemed hefty enough to travel the whole route at full speed. Then came the route, introducing the locals in their club-swinging greatness and Donalds gets credit for a victory instead of the game going down as a defeat for Schanze.

For it must be explained that Schanze is the lad that Manager Osborne had picked to bring home victory. In his time of service the little German managed to hold the swatting with some degree of success, but he could not locate the plate. He walked three men in the first inning and he bowed gracefully from the scene at the end of the third. Donalds rushed in to stem the tide and he did the thing up in great shape in spite of the handicap under which he started. In the last five rounds he got away with three hits, one of which was a triple, followed by a wild pitch which resulted in a score.

That triumph might not have been achieved but for the arrival of Nelson Sandherr, for the new Bean short stop. He drove in a run in the sixth, poled two across in the eventful seventh and was a great factor in inflicting some of the old fighting spirit into the Osborne crew which allowed them to come up from behind. McClintock also had a great day with the club, getting a triple, a double and a single out of four trips to the plate.

Fielding features were injected at rare intervals, Prysock pulling off the most sensational play of the afternoon when he stabbed Patterson's drive in the second and doubled Hinte up at first. It was almost like going into a new position for Chick Long to shift back to third and two boots were credited to him.

Schanze got in trouble in the very first inning by walking Baggan, the first man up. Newnam sacrificed him. Plummer popped out to Patterson. Schanze then issued passes to Geyer and Blue. Willoughby hit one down along third and Long let it get away from him, a runner scoring. Munn grounded to Nesser for the final out. Schanze covering the bag.

A healthy triple by Prysock started things in the second. Schanze tolled hard and got Goshorn and Baggan on slow grounders, but Al Newnam did not fail to weigh in with the timely bingle and brought Prysock home with a run, just when it looked like he might be left to roost on third. Plummer waited and strolled, but Geyer popped to Patterson.

In the fourth the visitors got two more around the circuit. Sandherr's error allowed Goshorn to get one. Baggan beat out a bunt. Newnam reached first when he attempted to sacrifice. Nesser making a bad peg to McClintock. Plummer hit to left, scoring the runner. Geyer grounded to Long and Blue hit a long one to Okey for the final out.

Geyer led off the seventh with a blow, was sacrificed by Blue and remained on second when Willoughby and Munn went out in order. Winging one man while another hit permitted two of the visitors to get on in the ninth, but Willoughby could only sent a pop fly to McClintock.

Patterson is the man that started things in the eventful seventh, beating one out down the first base line. He got out at second when Long grounded to Willoughby. Miller was hit. Okey went out, Goshorn to Munn. McClintock doubled, clearing the bags. He went to third on a passed ball. Houtz got a walk and stole second. Nesser was walked purposely and Sandherr won a home in the hearts of the fans by poling one to left, which put two runs across and allowed the locals to go ahead. Hinte got on through Munn's error and Patterson also demonstrated that he was good with men on, driving one to center. Long fled to right for the last out of the inning. The score:

LIMA NOTES.

Though occupying a position next to the cellar champagne, Manager Newnam is not discontented, but still says that he will be up there fighting the leaders before the season is a month older. He is satisfied with his team when Herold is in the game, and claims that the luck has all broken the other way.

Physician Said Appendicitis Gall Stones Expelled by the Great Kidney Preparation

I thought I would do you a favor and let you know what Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root has done so far for me. About one year ago I was taken sick with a terrible pain in my right side. My family physician pronounced it appendicitis. About two weeks ago I received your Almanac and read in it about weak kidneys, and my back hurting me so much, I thought I would try your Swamp-Root and to my great astonishment, after using one bottle, I expelled three gall stones, which weighed 135 grains. I feel confident that my kidneys are not well yet, and so I have concluded to continue with Swamp-Root. Mr. Schwake, the druggist, thought that it never was appendicitis and that the doctor had made a mistake. It was no doubt, gall stones that caused the trouble, or they would not have come away so soon after commencing with Swamp-Root. I shall always praise Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root to all those who suffer from kidney, liver and bladder troubles and am very thankful that I ever discovered such a worthy remedy. I feel confident that it will cure me entirely of all kidney and liver trouble. MRS. MARY J. SCHNITZGER, 1502 15th St. and 5th Ave., Nebraska City, Neb. Personally appeared before me this 31st day of August, 1909, Mrs. Mary J. Schnitzger, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact. A. P. YOUNG, County Clerk, Louis Sturt, Deputy. Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do For You Send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling all about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention this paper. Regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

PIQUA OFFERS $2,500 FOR KIENE'S NEWARK FRANCHISE

Piqua, June 7.—Owner H. A. Kiene of the Newark baseball club is in Piqua for the purpose of transferring his club to Piqua for the balance of the season. Mr. Kiene is a man who has taken up baseball or the love of it. His health compelled him to give up business and after doing nothing for two years he purchased the Newark club in January last.

Matters have not been exactly satisfactory in Newark and he wants to bring the club to Piqua.

The club is in a good clean baseball eight club organization, it has 47 games yet to play. If it comes to Piqua it is estimated that the seven other clubs which must play one game each in Piqua, will spend about $1,200 in hotel bills and other expenses.

The club is a good clean baseball organization which Mr. Kiene says "can deliver the goods." He adds that he does not want to hold up the public, just to be assured that the citizens want baseball and will patronize it. Mr. Kiene has had conferences with some of the leading men of the city who like baseball, such as Mr. Harry Kress, Dr. W. J. Prince, and others, and has received encouragement. It has been suggested to sell three hundred coupon season tickets which would be sufficient guarantee to induce the club management to transfer to Piqua. The matter will be talked over at a conference of the directors of the Piqua Business Men's Association this evening and then presented to the entire association at a meeting in New Halls this evening.

Lima, June 7.—Before the close of the present series the baseball team that is opposing Lima on the diamond this week may claim Piqua instead of Lima. In this league would run wild. Newark has played three games here this season, and every man who has tried to steal has been nipped. Newnam scoops them up and puts them on the runners with the same movement.

Umpire Pastorius could be called the "fighting ump." He looks like a tough, but fellows who know him say he is a prince of fellows. He goes about umpiring like one who knows his business, and will brook no interference from the players. Pastorius is an old pitcher, and performed on a Lima team in 1894 and 1895. Many of the old timers remember him well, and recognize him readily. He also pitched a number of years in organized ball, and last year umpired in the O. & N.

Newnam made a ten strike when he landed "Lefty" Geyer. He is a natural hitter, and will strengthen the team wonderfully.

With Newnam on this trip is Red Kline, a former Lima pitcher in 1909.

There are 35,000 Russians at work in Scottish Iron and coal mines.

The prince of wales wears in his coronet or crown (which is 17 1/2) a feather which is valued at $50,000.

ORGANIZED ARSONISTS

(Continued from Page 1.) ed by detectives last night in an effort to arrest him, said by his wife to be visiting a "customer" in South Chicago. Head of gang, name not revealed, father of six children, and supposed to be in the brokerage business; believed to have fled from the city after the arrest of Dreyfus Brothers. Max Cohen, bookkeeper for the firm was questioned by the police several times, but was released as being ignorant of the plot. While Leopold was gradually unfolding the facts to his examiners in one room, Lazard, in another room, was making conflicting statements. What his brother had revealed was put up to him from time to time, however, and finally he broke down and was in tears when he made a detailed statement of the case. Dreyfus confessed that when the agent of the "fire-bug trust" first approached him, he told him many other merchants in Chicago and other cities were employing his agency to burn their stores for the insurance. "You will not have to take any risk. You can go out of town while the job is being pulled off," the agent persisted. "I will take all the responsibility and do the job for $5000."

When the sum of $5000 was mentioned Dreyfus said he demurred. It finally was agreed, however, that he would pay the boss incendiary $2000 for his work. Of this $2000 was paid in advance, he said, and the remaining $1700 was to have been paid out of the insurance to be collected.

It was decided that the fire should take place Saturday afternoon, while employees of the building were taking their half holiday. Leopold Dreyfus had gone to Gray's Lake in order to be conveniently out of the way. Lazard, his brother, remained in the building. In the morning five boxes containing six five-gallon cans of gasoline arrived. A short time later the boss incendiary arrived. He sent Lazard from the building about 3 o'clock and half an hour later the building was a mass of flames.

Investigation of the financial affairs of the Dreyfus tailoring concern, it is said, showed ample reason for his desperate frame of mind—a mental state that made him a ready "customer" for the professional "fire arrangers" who visited him with their alluring offer of quick returns through a fire.

Although the assets of the company are estimated at considerably below $20,000, the liabilities—those already found—will amount to $35,000. Creditors were republishing the man for money, but none was forthcoming.

The already discovered liabilities of the concern are divided in this manner: Outstanding bills for merchandise, $15,000; borrowed on personal notes, $4500; outstanding paper, $11,000; total, $32,500.

On the other hand, the "fire arrangers" found that his insurance was in excellent condition when he prepared to fire his place. His stock was valued at something under $15,000, it is said, but he carried nearly twice that amount of fire insurance.

The investigation of Dreyfus' financial affairs resulted in a new charge being preferred against him. It is asserted by Attorney Sullivan, fire attorney, that the head of the tailoring concern, falsified his accounts in order to defraud banking concerns with which he did business.

ABBOTT'S TEAM IS ATTACKED BY MOB

VACANCY IN POSITIONS OF SUPERINTENDENT AND HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

Board of Education So Decides and Will Consider Applicants for Vacancies at Special Meeting on Next Tuesday Night.

The Board of Education held the regular meeting on Tuesday evening in the Auditorium theatre building and considerable business was transacted. The teachers who were referred to the committee on teachers were all reappointed with the exception of Principal T. Otto Williams. Several teachers were granted leaves of absence for a year and authorization was given the president and clerk of the board to borrow $15,000 for payment of taxes.

When the board convened roll call found all the members responding. Messrs. Kibler, Beggs, Broome, Conrad, Miller and Keller. The usual budget of bills was presented and allowed. Principal Williams presented the cases of several pupils in the senior class of the high school who were short in the credits necessary to obtain a diploma. The board decided if such pupils would make up the deficiency and be certified by the faculty of the school that they had done so, upon presentation of the certification they would be presented with a diploma issued by the Board of Education.

Sarah J. McNeal, a teacher in the South Fifth street building, and Ethel G. Woods of the East Main street building were given leaves of absence during the coming school term, they desiring to attend normal school.

The president and clerk of the board were authorized to borrow $15,000 to provide current funds in anticipation of the June taxes. Truant Officer Handel was present and made his monthly report. He told of 83 absentees and 45 playing truant. This is an unusually large number of offenders.

Cucumber Soup—Pare and cut in thin slices three good sized cucumbers; put in a steppan with one white onion, sliced, and one tablespoonful of butter, cover and cook for ten minutes without browning, then add one pint of boiling water, and simmer until very soft. Scald one pint of milk, add one level tablespoonful of flour smoothly blended with a little cold milk; stir until it thickens; rub the cucumbers through a fine sieve and add to the milk; season to taste with salt and pepper and return to the double boiler for ten minutes. Serve with croutons.

Almond Junket—Take one quart of milk and four ounces of Jordan almonds; blanch, dry and grind or finely chop the almonds, finely pounding them well. Put a very little of the milk into a small saucepan, adding to it the almonds. Simmer these together until the milk is strongly flavored with the almonds, and add while hot to the cold milk, which thus will be rendered sufficiently warm for the addition of the junket tablet. The almonds may, if wished, be removed by straining the hot milk through a piece of muslin, or they may be left in, as preferred. In either case the flavor is much pleasanter than when almond extract is used. Pour into custard glasses, and when firm garnish with glace fruits and angelica.

HOME GROWN BERRIES ARE ON THE MARKET

Home grown fruit has appeared on the local markets. Wednesday's market offered cherries and strawberries in generous quantities and, as a rule the prices were reasonable and the quality of the fruit excellent.

Tuesday fruit growers near the city offered their strawberries from wagons in the residence districts at 15c per quart or two for 25c. The berries were excellent, being large and luscious and evenly ripened.

Robert Zergiebel, ex-chief of police, who is now a farmer, brought the first cherries to market Tuesday. He asked the market price on cherries, but none of the commission houses had received any quotations the hot weather being given as the cause.

The building committee was given the authority to make the necessary repairs during the vacation term and the same are to be done under the supervision of Mr. Handel.

The committee on teachers to whom was referred the appointment of Principal T. Otto Williams, Miss Anna Wotring, Miss Carrie B. Allen and Miss Helen Roberts reported in favor of the confirmation of the appointments. A separate vote was demanded on the appointment of said teachers and the appointment of Miss Wotring, Miss Allen and Miss Roberts was confirmed, but that of Mr. Williams was not confirmed.

The vote on Mr. Williams' appointment was two in favor and four against, Messrs. Beggs and Keller voted for and Messrs. Kibler, Broome, Conrad and Miller against the appointment. This leaves the appointment of a principal to the discretion of the new superintendent, whose appointment has not been made but for which office the merits of the various applicants will be considered at the next meeting of the board, Tuesday evening, June 13.

Mr. Keller on request presented a petition signed by 19 teachers in the high school petitioning in favor of the retention of Mr. Williams. They say in the petition they submitted the same for the purpose of denying a report being circulated that Mr. Williams is not popular with the teachers in the high school. A petition signed by 343 out of 373 pupils interviewed was also presented in favor of Mr. Williams. Adjournment of the board was taken until Tuesday evening of next week.

up to Tuesday and no "market price" prevailed.

Cherries are unusually plentiful this year. Trees that never before yielded any fruit have an abundant crop this season. The warm weather of May has caused the fruit to develop and ripen rapidly.

According to the growers interviewed yesterday, there is little prospect of a good crop of strawberries. The first blossoms matured and the fruit developed and ripened nicely, but the second blooms were blasted by the hot weather and blackened on the stems.

None of the growers would state that the crop would be short, but it was their opinion that choice berries would be scarce.

ANNUAL LEWIS PRIZE CONTEST AT GRANVILLE

Program of Essays, Declamations, Orations and Debates—Picnic of Chi Psi Delta Sorority.

Granville, O., June 7.—The annual Lewis Prize contest was held in the Baptist church Tuesday evening. The program consisted of essays, declamations, orations, and debate, the contestants having been selected in preliminary contests in the two rival college literary societies, Franklin and Caliope. There was one contestant for each number from each of the societies. The judges were Mr. Charles L. Flory of Newark, Hon. W. O. Redding of Mont Rose, Colo., and Rev. C. H. Moss of Malden, Mass. The decisions will not be announced until the time of the commencement exercises Thursday morning.

The invocation was given by Dr. Stillwell of Cleveland. Following this came the debate: "Resolved, That the movement of organized labor for the closed shop should receive the support of public opinion." The affirmative was upheld by George B. Williams of Caliope. In a twelve minute constructive speech, Williams based his argument upon three points: that labor organization is just; that it is necessary to the life of the labor organization, and that it is necessary to a successful trade agreement. The negative was presented by Hugh C. Gillespie for Franklin. He based his claim upon the fact that ninety per cent of the laboring men are opposed to the closed shop; that the closed shop is a menace to union men, and that it is contrary to the fundamental principle of American institutions. Williams then closed the debate with a three minute rebuttal.

In the declamation, Zo D. Browne presented "A Soldier of the Empire" as Franklin's representative and Charles W. O'Connor for Caliope gave an impersonation in two scenes taken from "The Rivals." Miss Redding then rendered a piano solo, "Norwegian War Dance" from Neupert. In the essay, Karl H. Eschmann discussed the "Future World State" for Caliope, and George F. Plim for Franklin. In the oration, Newton H. Corman, Caliope, spoke on the subject, "Peace and the Panama Canal," and Archibald G. Adams, Franklin, discussed "The Root of All Evil." As the closing number, F. E. Wolf sang a vocal solo, "My Ah! Folk."

The prizes for the successful contestants are awarded each year by Hon. Charles T. Lewis of Toledo.

ANNUAL PICNIC.
One of the most enjoyable events of the commencement week was the annual picnic party given by the members of the Chi Psi Delta sorority to a large number of the members of the different college fraternities. At an early hour in the evening three large hay wagons, loaded with young women and men, conveyed the happy party to the pleasant country home of Mr. David Watkins, two miles east of Granville. There were eighty-six people in the party, and a splendid time was had. A delicious supper was a feature of the occasion. The merry party returned home about 9:30 o'clock.

COMMENCEMENT TOMORROW.
Tomorrow morning the annual commencement of Denison University will take place in the Baptist church. The class of '11 is one of the largest in the history of the school.

ART RECEPTION.
On Monday afternoon occurred the annual art reception, which was held in the Doane gymnasium. Here the work of the studio of the past year was displayed and was inspected with great interest and admiration by all. The walls of the large hall were filled with the productions of the students, and their work is very creditable to say the least. Those in charge of this department deserve unlimited praise for the manner in which the studio has been conducted this year, and the results of their efforts to bring art and its purposes into more prominence in Denison, appeared plainly in the excellent character of the picture displayed.

Rev. A. S. Carman, who for so many years was connected with Denison university, but who for the past two years has been filling most acceptably the pulpit of the First Baptist church of Marietta, is here to attend the commencement of Denison university.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jarquart of Indianapolis, accompanied by their son, Claude, arrived here Tuesday evening, having come overland in Mr. Jarquart's machine. They are here to attend the commencement of Denison, their son, Claude, having graduated from this institution last year. They had a very pleasant trip.

MEETING OF THE DENISON ALUMNI

The members of the Alumni Association of Denison University, of which there are a large number in attendance at the annual commencement of the college, met in sections Wednesday afternoon at the different fraternity houses and other places, and organized their alumni groups at 1 o'clock. At 2 o'clock a meeting of the alumni was held at the Baptist church, presided over by the president of the association, Samuel Priestly of Chicago. Among other business transacted at this meeting will be the election of officers for the ensuing year.

FOREIGN NEWS

Berlin, May 7.—The Zeppelin airship Deutschland II, built to replace the ill-fated Deutschland destroyed in June, 1910, is now making regular daily passenger trips from Dusseldorf. These trips began at Easter, but were interrupted by a mishap which occurred when the huge aerial vessel was being brought out of her revolving shed. The repairs lasted a fortnight and the regular trips have now been recommenced. On each day on which the weather is favorable, the Deutschland II, ascends from Dusseldorf and takes a cruise of two hours' duration. The fare for each passenger is $25. The passengers' saloon, built amidships, provides every comfort, including champagne and cold edibles from a buffet at one end.

Paris, June 7.—Dr. Rene Cuche and Dr. Mouligner have studied what they term "aviator sickness" and have made an extensive report to the French Academy of Sciences on the subject.

Flying at high altitudes weakens the heart, while planing downward at vertiginous angles is severe strain upon the entire organism on account of the swiftly increasing atmospheric pressure. Morane is quoted as saying he was the victim of hallucinations while flying and sometimes saw things that could not exist. He once saw Notre Dame, in Paris, although he was 100 miles distant.

A sort of "sleeping sickness" has been known to overcome aviators flying at a height against the cold wind. The doctors, whose word cannot be doubted, declare that a young Frenchman was recently found fast asleep in his aeroplane in the middle of a field. When awakened with difficulty he had no idea where he was or how he got there. He had gone to sleep in the air and landed without knowing it.

Paris, June 7.—The Aero Club de France has decided upon the dates of June 10 and 12 for the elimination races for the Gordon Bennett cup. The races will be at Betheny, near Rheims.

Geneva, June 7.—Despite official denials that his health renders it impossible for King Alfonso to spend another winter in Spain, it is the general belief in Switzerland that a Spaniard who recently purchased a handsome villa at Lezins, a sanatorium resort near the Rhone valley, was acting for his majesty. So far as can be learned, it is not indeed true that Alfonso is consumptive, as originally reported, but it is said that the disease from which he has long suffered, involving the decay of bones in his head, is making such serious progress that Dr. Moure, of Bordeaux, the royal physician, advised the change in the forlorn hope that it may be beneficial.

London, June 7.—Although legislative investigation of the English department of public education has been prevented for the time being by a parliamentary trick known in the house of commons as a "blocking motion," recent accidental disclosures of its incompetency have resulted in a public outcry so vociferous that for its own political welfare the administration cannot long withhold an inquiry and sweeping reforms.

Illustrative of the bitterness of public comment concerning the present methods of the department, the London Morning News says: "In the eyes of an American, a German, a Swiss or a Scandinavian, a school is rightly considered a means to a highly important end and the schoolmaster no less important than his office. What do we make of this institution and its chief? Managed in practice, if not in theory, by the local vicar and his churchwardens, the school is an object of contempt and a subject of strife, its head master a pliant dependant, underpaid, socially obscure, a pick-up of odd jobs that involve figuring and spelling."

The general view is that existing conditions are due to mismanagement by a long series of ministers, but the one responsible for it at present is Minister of Education Walter Runciman, a liberal. Most politicians believe that the scandal concerning his department will shortly force him into retirement.

Berlin, June 7.—A complete system of signals for airships and flying machines has been elaborated by Capt. von Frankenburg, chairman of the German Imperial Aero Club, and will be submitted to the international committee that meets at Brussels on May 26. Capt. von Frankenburg has worked out a code based on single letters and figures, and he proposes that signs and signals shall be painted on the roofs of churches, gasometers and other prominent buildings in sufficient dimensions to be visible from a considerable altitude.

Some of these signals for aerial navigators could be eliminated at night. The signs and signals would enable the airman to recognize the locality beneath them and thus get their bearings, just as seamen shape their course by lighthouses and buoys. The well known German aeronautical expert, Capt. Hildebrand, will preside over the meetings of the international committee at Brussels, which will also decide the question of maps for aerial navigation.

Berlin, June 7.—The members of the Socialist trade unions in Germany numbered at the beginning of this year more than two millions. During the last six years their membership has doubled. Their aggregate property amounts in value to $11,000,000.

Geneva, June 7.—News that Queen Victoria of Spain is coming to Switzerland late in June to have her second son, Don Jaime, operated on for a defect of speech, comes as the first definite confirmation of previous reports that any of the Spanish royal children are defective. The truth is, according to apparently reliable information, that all of them are so and there is good authority for the statement that in at least one case the weakness is mental as well as physical.

The children's infirmity is attributed to Alfonso's condition at the time of his marriage. It is known that he, in turn, inherited grave troubles from his father and was only kept alive during babyhood by the most heroic treatment. Later, an outdoor life and constant exercise seemed to be working an improvement, but more recently his health has been breaking up again. The story that he will spend next winter in Switzerland persists and is probably true.

Rome, June 7.—Though usual official denials followed recent reports of the alarming condition of the pope's health, it is no particular secret about the Vatican that much uneasiness is felt concerning his holiness. The pontiff is, indeed, up and about. He is kept constantly, however, under a physician's eye, and every effort is made by his attendants to shield him from fatigue or worry. The truth is that his attacks of gout are growing steadily more frequent and progressively more serious. His heart is also extremely weak, and that he is suffering from arterial degeneration there is no question. During the earlier days following his elevation to the papal throne he threw off disease with little trouble. Then he does so only with great difficulty and it is certain that any one of his attacks, no matter how mild it may appear at the outset, may result fatally.

St. Petersburg, June 7.—Astounding revelations of sufferings of political exiles deported to Archangelsk the most northerly province of Russia, are published here today. Recently a large number of political offenders have been banished to this province instead of to Siberia.

One of the most desolate settlements is the village of Kedva, which lies within the Arctic circle. It consists of 60 wooden huts inhabited by the natives, who are a mixed race partly Eskimo and partly Tartar. Those exiles who can afford it are allowed to lodge with the natives in the foul atmosphere of their miserable hovels, while a large barn, with straw scattered over the floor, is provided for those unable to pay any rent.

Each exile receives an allowance of four dollars per month from the government. There is no opportunity of earning money at Kedva, so that those who receive no remittances from relatives are ever on the verge of starvation. From April to October there is no mail in the village and during the remaining five months of the year none at all. From April to October, the mails arrive twice per month, but the postal service is entirely suspended from November to March. There is no priest or pastor in the place, which is surrounded by gloomy forests, infested with bears and wolves. The nearest settlement is 60 miles distant.

SANGSTERS FOR A SONG

One day an executor, closing out an estate, offered at public auction the household effects of a wealthy man.

Among those who attended the sale was a woman who always kept in touch with the want columns of her favorite paper, where she read of the sale.

Among the effects offered were a lot of water colors by A. L. Sangster. "The Poet Painter of the Niagara."

Securing these pictures for a mere song, the woman was able to dispose of some of them at their real worth and reserved a number of them to hang on the walls of her own home.

This is but one practical example of the fact that it pays to read the want columns.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

How Lion
Rewarded Slave
Who Helped Him

"I WAS so proud of Brother Jack today, daddy," said Evelyn. "He jumped in and beat off two bad boys who were hurting a little dog by trying a string around its tail."

"Splendid," said daddy; "that's my boy. Always be kind to an animal, and maybe some day the animal will repay you. He certainly will if he can. Did I ever tell you the story of Androcles and the lion?"

"No, sir; please tell us," cried the children.

"Well," began daddy, "Androcles was a slave in the old, old Roman days, long before the birth of Christ. He ran away from a cruel master and walked around for days in the desert, living on what few berries and figs he could find, rather than go back and probably be whipped to death."

"At night he used to sleep in a lion's cave that he thought had been left for good by its owner, but one night the lion came home. Androcles was frightened half to death, but the lion paid no attention to him, for it was too busy nursing a sore foot."

"Androcles soon saw what the matter was. The lion had stepped on a big thorn that had broken off so short in the wound that he couldn't get hold of it with his teeth to pull it out. So Androcles, although he was trembling with fear, came out of the shadows in which he was hiding, and the great lion let him handle the sore foot and pull out the thorn. Then he licked Androcles' hand and left him the cave all to himself."

"Some time after that the poor slave was forced by hunger and cold to go back to Rome, and there his cruel master caught him again. To make an example to other slaves who might dare to run away he ordered that Androcles be taken to the circus—that is a place like our athletic fields today—and made to fight bare handed with a lion while all the city looked on."

"So poor Androcles was put in the middle of the big ring, and out of the steel cage underneath the seats came an enormous lion. But to everybody's great surprise the lion didn't jump at the slave and kill him. Instead it knelt down and crawled to his feet and licked his hand. It was the lion the slave had helped in the cave."

"Then everybody cheered, and the emperor set Androcles free."

"That's a beautiful story, daddy," said Evelyn, "but I hardly think I would dare try to help a lion, no matter how much he was suffering."

"Nor would I," admitted daddy, "but Androcles did, and he got paid for it. Jack helped the little dog, and some day maybe he'll get paid for it. Now, hurry off to sleep, both of you, or I'll bite you worse than a lion could."

COLLIER IS SUED FOR HALF MILLION

WEEKLY REVIEW OF HIGH GRADE PETROLEUM FIELDS

Montpelier, Ind., June 7.—A review of the high grade petroleum fields for the week shows a slight falling off in completed work, dry holes and new production from the previous week's work. Northwestern Ohio, Illinois and West Virginia are the points that show the decline, while slight increases were made in Southeastern Ohio and Pennsylvania, Kentucky and Indiana fields were a stand off.

Gas Legislation in Ohio.

Supply of natural gas in every city in Ohio may be cut off if the Winters public utility bill passes in form objectionable to the big gas interests.

"We have markets in other states, at higher prices for all we can produce. Gas is never going to be cheaper, but the supply is diminishing and the price is going up steadily."

This, in substance, is what officials and attorneys for the gas interests told the joint senate and house committee on the Winters public utility bill.

Notice was given that the gas supply in Columbus will be cut off July 1 if the council insists upon the ordinance fixing the new rate at 80 cents per 1,000 feet for a period of 10 years. The company will accept that rate for five years but no longer.

The supply in other cities will be cut off, the speakers asserted when existing contracts expire, unless new rates are satisfactory to the companies.

James W. McMahon, of Toledo, representing the Northwestern Ohio Natural Gas Co. He advocated eliminating natural gas companies from the utilities bill altogether and leaving the adjustment of rates to the individual companies and local city councils. In this he differed with representatives of most of the other companies, who asked that councils be shorn of power and that the rate making authority be conferred exclusively upon the proposed State public utility commission.

All the natural gas men were united, however, in opposition to the divided authority the bill centers in the matter of rate making. It provides that gas rates may be fixed decennially by the city councils, but does not give councils final authority. If the pending Grosser municipal initiative and referendum bill becomes law, the rate fixed by councils must be submitted to popular vote upon petition of 5 per cent. of the gas users in any city. Then any 10 citizens, or the company itself, may appeal from the decision of the people to the State public utility commission and provision is made for appeal from the commission to the courts. This, it was asserted, would result in chaos.

The gas men ask that final authority be lodged either in the council or with the State commission. Most of them preferred the commission, but conceded that this might result in defeat of the entire bill, since it would curtail home rule, a cardinal doctrine of the Democratic party enunciated with emphasis in the platform adopted at its last State convention.

"Toledo, Tiffin, Findlay and Lancaster are the only Ohio cities to operate municipal gas plants," said L. B. Denning of Columbus, representing the Ohio Fuel Supply Co. "Lancaster's was the only one even partly successful, and all are out of business. Toledo's heritage as a result of the experiment is an unpaid bonded debt of $1,500,000."

It was shown during the discussion that the average price of natural gas in Ohio in 1909 was 26.8 cents for domestic purposes and 11.3 cents for industrial purposes.

Important Oil Suit.

The Supreme Court of Indiana handed down a decision in a case carried up from Jay County circuit court three years ago, in which its findings reverse the lower court and holds that one holding a life interest in an estate has no right to lease or sell the mineral rights.

The suit was brought up by Martin Rupel, now deceased and other heirs of the late James Rupel against the Ohio Oil Co. The case was tried before Judge J. F. La Follette in favor of the defendant. The suit was to recover for oil produced on a farm owned by plaintiff's father, in which Mary Rupel, the wife, held a life interest. She executed a lease in favor of John Wolf and he in turn sold the lease to the defendant. The plaintiff contended that the lease was invalid for the reason that only a life interest and no fee simple was held in the estate. Judge La Follette held that a life tenant had a right to execute the lease and that the plaintiffs could not recover. The decision was rendered on passing on a demurrer filed in the case and the suit was carried to the Supreme Court on the demurrer. In reversing the lower court, the Supreme Court held that the life tenant can not grant the right to anyone to take oil from her life estate and if such is done the parties receiving the oil must account or settle for the same. Under the decision of the Supreme Court the defendants must settle with the heirs for the oil, which is valued at $100,000. The Ohio Oil Co., has drilled 16 wells, all good producers on the Rupel farm, and although it paid out from $14,000 to $16,000 in royalty, it will be called upon to pay for all the oil produced at its market value.

Southeastern Ohio.

The Southeastern and Central Ohio fields made a good record for the week by showing 47 completed wells. Washington county leads with sixteen completions, with Morgan county second. Monroe county is showing a full in development work of late, and those that are completed are very light.

Near Harlettsville, in Enoch township, Noble county, a 15-barrel well has been drilled on the Grum farm, while a duster was found in the same district, on the Smithberger farm. Many years ago a well that produced 1,500 barrels was drilled upon the Hanlon farm, in the Reas Run district, in Independence township, Washington county. This was the initial well on the farm. A few days ago No. 12 on the same farm, was drilled in and only showed a production of 15 barrels, which indicates that the producing oil rock has been heavily drawn upon in these years and that the production is growing smaller rapidly.

Central Ohio Field.

Things do not look as good to the north end of the Central Ohio field as it did some time ago. The real north end in Medina county shows up fairly well, but the territory between there and the Bremen field is not what it is supposed to be and a few dry holes that are expensive are being brought in off and on. Another one of these dusters have been found in Newton township, Muskingum county, near the town of Fultonham. The failure is located on the Steneber farm, and owned by Goldstein Bros. The well is a real duster for oil and did not show a spark of gas, making it the rankest of rank. The Columbus Gas and Fuel Co., is now at work on two tests in the same county. One is on the McCraken farm and the other on the J. P. Harkness farm. In Coshocton county, just to the north of Muskingum, this same company drilled in a duster on the Phillips farm, and a light gas producer on the Smiley farm, both in West Township.

The deep sand territory of Central Ohio is keeping well to the fore, especially the southern section of the field, in the southwestern part of Perry county, and the northeastern part of Hocking county. In Coal Township, Perry county, near Straitsville, the test on the Clever Phipps farm, shows for a 75 barrel producer from the Clinton sand. No. 2 on the Tucker farm, in Falls Grove township, Hocking county, near Gore and west of Straitsville, is good for about 50 barrels. This particular territory is the only section of the Central Ohio field furnishing appreciable deep sand producers. Nearly all of the new production is now coming from the two counties mentioned and the new work there leads all other sections of the field. To the north of the field interest is waning. The last four completions being either dry holes or very small gas wells, and when it is known that one of these wells cost about $9,000, it makes many of the smaller operators glad that they did not get in on the hazardous game.

The late gas completions in the field are not as prolific as those during the first three months of the year. Many of the wells that were drilled were considered wildcat ventures. Ashland county is now developing the best gas of any of the counties and it will be in that county that most of the new work for gas will soon start. Much leasing has been done near Cleveland, in Cuyahoga county and that means that some wildcat work will soon be started. It will make the citizens of Cleveland jubilant if a gas field is developed right at their back door. Should a good gas field be found near Cleveland it will help much toward furnishing the required fuel for that growing city of Lake Erie.

Considerable land has also been leased in the eastern section of Lorain county, west from Cuyahoga and north from Medina, as well as in Starke, Holmes and Summit counties. This means that the territory will be tried out for both oil and gas as the large gas companies are the owners of the leases.

The week's work was distributed by fields as follows:

CHILDREN'S HAIR

Keep It Free From Dandruff and It Will Grow Lovely.

Being the best hair dressing for men and women, Parisian Sage is also best for children. Try it once and see how clean and healthy it keeps the scalp.

"My daughter used Parisian Sage on her children's hair and it is as good as you recommended it to be." — Hannah Anderson, 1021 Divine St., Columbia, S. C.

Here is what a North Dakota woman says:

"Parisian Sage certainly has done my hair a lot of good, and will highly recommend it as very good tonic for the hair. Have used various kinds of tonics and have found Parisian Sage the best. I have my hair free from dandruff now, and it has a healthy luster and has an even color. It used to be streaky. Many of my friends are using it and they speak highly of it." — Mrs. Anna Rooney, 101 Second St., N. Fargo, N. D.

Always bear in mind that there is nothing for the hair that can compare with Parisian Sage. There are many imitations but none of them are guaranteed to eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back.

A Penny Investment Leads To Independence.

A TRUE STORIETTE

Copyright 1911 by DeForest Porter.

There was a time in my life when I wondered why so many people stood at the corner near the press rooms buying a paper the minute the newsboys came running out with them from the alley.

I do not wonder any more. That crowd tells me a story for I too have been of the number. I once spent my last cent for a paper and I found that penny investment a better one than many a dollar I had taken a chance on in other ways. To drop from plenty to poverty in a week's time gives a young fellow a jar. That's what my drop did to me but in the jar what common sense and grit I had was shaken to the surface and I began to live from that moment.

I said to myself there was better chance for me in the world of work than for the fellow who had never known what luxury meant. At first when I asked for a position, the men in the offices looked at me as if they thought I was a crook. If I had any conceit, it was taken out of me. One day when I had one cent and a bunch of keys chasing each other around in my pocket I edged up to the crowd on the corner. "What's doing?" I asked. "Wait'n' for a paper. I know a friend of mine who got a good job answering an ad in the paper last night and mebbe there's an ad for me to answer." Was the reply. "Do you 'spose I could find a job?" I asked. "Sure, Mike," the fellow replied with a broad grin. "I know many a br's got a good job this way."

I bought a paper and hurried away to a settee and scanned its columns. I cut out three possible positions and started out to answer them. Two of the positions had already been taken. The last was that of chauffeur. I knew enough about an automobile to secure the position. I knew enough about the repair end of the business to save my employer a lot of money. In a year's time my employer went into the automobile business and he made me manager of the big public garage. In another year I shall have money to invest in the business for myself. That's why the corner next to the press room always looks good to me, because it was there that I took my first step to self dependence on a penny investment. That's why I feel that the Want ad pages stand for more value to the man out of work and the employer than all the other pages of the paper combined. BOB W.

GRANDMOTHERS' BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Color and Beauty of the Hair Preserved with a Harmless Remedy Made from Sage.

Druggists everywhere comment on the fact that they are selling large quantities of sage for making old-fashioned "sage tea," such as was used by our grandmothers for promoting the growth of their hair, making it fluffy and beautiful and restoring its natural color. The demand for this well-known herb for this purpose has been so great that one manufacturer has taken advantage of the fact and has placed on the market an ideal "sage tea," containing sulphur, a valuable remedy for dandruff and scalp rashes and irritations, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR PLAY BIG SUCCESS

THE YOUNG GRADUATES ACQUIT THEMSELVES CREDITABLY AT CLASS DAY EXERCISES.

Play is Interesting and Each Character Was Ably Portrayed by the Members of the Class.

The class day exercises of this year's graduating class of the Newark high school were held in the chapel of the school on Tuesday. It was divided into two parts. In the afternoon the regular exercises pertaining to class day were held and in the evening the class play was given. Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the members of the class of '11 and their friends assembled in the auditorium where the events dear to the heart of the student were held. Orren Hall read the will, bequeathing to the juniors of the school all the things liked and disliked by this year's class. Miss Dorothy Hoagland read the program, and this contained many amusing things in store for the members in the future. A well written history of the class was given by Miss Estella Devlin. The class oration was given by Harold Chapman. The entire meeting was presided over by DeWitt Hansberger, who acted as chairman.

In the evening the class play was given. The auditorium of the school was filled to see the production of "The Cricket on the Hearth," which was one of the most successful plays yet given at the school. Under the direction of Miss Clara C. Ewalt, in-structor in English, all the members of the cast interpreted their roles with the ease of a professional, and best of all, their enunciation was remarkably clear. The wonderful work of Miss Ewalt was apparent in every part of the production.

A musical program was given under the auspices of Prof. C. W. Klopp by the high school orchestra and consisted of:

Spirit of the Winds.....Bennet
Dance of the Nymphs.....Evans
Vivienne Overture.....Bennet
Orchids.....Crosby

The play developed some exceptionally clever talent in the members of the class. The drama offered some excellent opportunities and not a member of the cast neglected them. In a comedy role Miss Helen Africa astonished her friends by the remarkable insight she showed to her character and her wonderful delineation of it. Miss Ruth Fraser interpreted the role of a blind girl, a difficult one, with perfect ease. Miss Bessie Larkin made a delightful girl. Harry Rossel made a handsome villain and gave all the hands of his role with the traits of a finished actor. Emerson Miller very cleverly portrayed the part of an old man, Caleb Plummer. Mr. Miller did clever character work. Byron Pryor made a delightful John Perrybringle, and Donald Wright made an interesting "old gentleman." Supporting the principals in a perfect way were Misses Margaret Ramey, Estella Devlin and Mary Swingle and DeWitt Hansberger and Clyde Adams.

The cast included:

MURDER TRIAL

Examination by a jury on the left side of the bench began. He said death was caused by strangulation.

By Martin: "Stab wound was just through the skin, not deep enough to reach the heart."

Charles Burke. City policeman, was examined by Smythe and described the trip of the patrol wagon to the "East Chance" saloon, where Richardson was taken, and brought to the county jail, as well as the crowd following the wagon and attempting to stop the horses, when on West Main street, near Third and down to the jail.

By Martin: "Had warrants for arrest of detectives in Rismark; don't think we had one for Richardson. Don't think defendant was in crowd in West End that tried to get on the wagon."

Robert Francis. Driver of patrol wagon last July. Described the trip with Richardson from the "East Chance" saloon to the county jail, the same as Officer Burke.

By Martin: "Didn't notice defendant in crowd at East Chance, as that followed the wagon or tried to interfere with trip to jail."

Harry Hale. City Editor Advocate. Examined by Smythe: "Went to West Newark last July 24th when I heard man had been shot, was in automobile when we met patrol wagon; got out of auto and came to city in patrol wagon; Richardson was badly beaten."

By Martin: "Didn't see defendant in crowd that followed wagon; went to jail that night; crowd was inside jail when I got there; don't know that I saw defendant that night."

Joshua Hall. Examined by Smythe: Gave the same testimony that he has given in nearly every other case. He said he was at Criss Bros. and Jones' undertaking establishment and saw patrol wagon going down Third street, saw crowd following and heard two shots fired.

Witness then told his story about the gathering of the crowd at the jail the evening of July 24, the attack on the jail, the going of the mob upstairs, the pounding there and of the remarks that he heard from the crowd upstairs. Also the hanging of Richardson on Third street; then along the South side to the pole and the hanging. He said he did not see defendant there; nor until last Monday that he remembered.

By Martin: "Colored man who made speech at jail was not defendant; did not see defendant help use the battering ram; didn't know him till last Monday."

Anthony Stare. Examined by Smythe and rehearsed his seeing the patrol wagon that afternoon, the crowds in the street, the gathering of the crowd that night and the hanging of Richardson. His testimony was the same as given in previous trials and is familiar.

By Martin: "Was as the jail nearly all the time the crowd was battering the jail doors; did not see the defendant in this crowd that I remember, nor in the crowd that hanged Richardson."

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

The court room was not more than one-fourth filled this afternoon and the same was true at the morning session of the Richardson murder case. Later in the afternoon the attendance was much larger. The first witness in the afternoon was:

Joseph Moser. Special officer for the Ohio Electric.

Witness examined by Mr. Smythe. The witness detailed his part in aid of the police on the day of July 24th. He also described the mob breaking into the cell, dragging Richardson from the jail to the place where he was hanged. He distinctly saw the gleam of a knife as he was stabbed, but could not say if the man who stabbed him was a white man or a colored man.

By Martin: "Don't know that I ever saw this defendant before. Man who stabbed Richardson was not in crowd that was leading him, but rushed into the crowd, saw doctors probe wound at morgue; should say it was an inch deep."

George Gaunders. Examined by Smythe, told of having went with the crowd to the second floor of the jail, and of the breaking in of the doors to Richardson's cell of bringing him out through the corridors and to the place where he was hanged. He heard Richardson shriek on several occasions, as the crowd was beating him.

By Martin: "Had no business in the jail that night, but was practically forced up by the crowd."

Jack Whiting. Examined by Smythe: "We always called defendant 'Lightning Bug.' The Sunday following the lynching I had a talk with Richardson on the street; he said to me and a couple of others that it looked as if they were going to blame it onto the colored boys, and that he was sorry he had anything to do with it; he also said that if he could get out of town he would never come back, and would be safe."

By Martin: "Don't remember that Richardson said they were trying to get him into it or that if the colored boys were blamed for it they would get the worst of it; there was some(thing said about blaming it onto the colored boys.)"

Sanford Henry. Examined by Smythe: "Knew defendant at time of lynching; was at the jail about 8 o'clock; heard Mayor Atherton's speech; shortly after this saw defendant standing on the first step of jail entrance; I whistled for him, but he didn't hear me; I asked a policeman to call his attention and he came to me; I told him he had better get out of that crowd, that we would get into trouble and would likely get his head knocked off. I took him by the arm and walked away with him up to Third street through the crowd; we got as far as Bolton's and went in; I treated him to a drink and he went out."

By Martin: "Richardson was just standing on the step when I first saw him; there had been no attack on the jail at that time; I went back to the jail after Richardson had left Bolton's, but saw him no more until after the affair had occurred. My release from a charge of murder was not brought about for my testimony in this case."

Weldon Denny. By Smythe: "Knew defendant; I saw him on the night of lynching in north jail entrance, just after Mayor Atherton had spoken. He waved his hand at me."

By Martin: "Richardson was not doing anything when I saw him there; didn't see him any more that night; indictment against me was notified."

A recess of 10 minutes was taken at this point.

Theodore Wiefenbach. By Smythe: "Manager of Hotel Warden; Richardson was employed there last July as houseman; on afternoon of July 8 we missed him; the day after the lynching I saw him but don't remember any conversation; didn't observe anything about him; when we met he rushed by me; didn't see him after that until this trial; saw him about midnight the night of the lynching; I was on the outside and he passed me and went down East Main street; saw nothing unusual about him nor his clothing."

By Martin: "His time off was 4:30; we missed him about 3 o'clock; saw no bloodstains on his shirt that night or next morning."

Charles Swank. Captain Newark police, examined by Smythe, testified to having gone to Nobleville, Ind., for Richardson and bringing him back to Newark.

By Martin: "Richardson told me he had been working in a straw-board works in Nobleville."

At 2:45 Prosecutor Smythe announced that he would have one witness that would be examined tomorrow morning with Levi Valentine, colored, a deaf mute, and after examination of Captain Swank the court adjourned to convene tomorrow morning at 8:30 instead of 9 o'clock.

ASSESSORS HAVE FINISHED WORK

Make Report to Auditor Riley, Showing Increase Over Valuation of Personal Property Last Year.

The assessors for the city of Newark and the various townships of the county have all made their returns to County Auditor Riley. The total assessment of personal property of the townships amounts to $3,561,680, while the assessment of personal property in the city of Newark amounts to $1,059,900.

These figures do not include the valuation of joint stock companies for the year, and the report for 1911 shows a marked increase over that of 1910.

Auditor Riley, in conversation with an Advocate reporter Wednesday, gave out the following for publication:

Newark, O., June 7, 1911.

To the People of Newark and Licking County:

"I would ask that if any of the assessors fail to see you or if any mistake has occurred in making the reports, that the matter be reported to me at once at the Auditor's office. The tax rate in Newark this year will not exceed 12 or 14 mills on the dollar valuation, and in the townships from 6 to 10 mills on the dollar valuation. I feel that all property should be listed at its true value in money, so that every taxpayer may bear his just burden of taxation. I would ask the co-operation of all persons interested in securing a just and equitable assessment, and I assure all that I will protect your interests. No excessive rates of taxation will be permitted. Let us all work together for good government, economically administered."

C. L. RILEY, Auditor, Licking County.

FINGERS CAUGHT IN ICE CRUSHER AT CREAMERY

William Lugenbeal of 510 Maple avenue, an employee of the Licking County Creamery, met with a serious accident about 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, which will make him a cripple for life. In the creamery there is a big ice crusher, which machine is so constructed that blocks of ice are crushed by means of rapidly revolving knives. Mr. Lugenbeal reached in the machine to get a handful of crushed ice for a glass of water and reached too far, the knives, quick as a flash, crushing his second, third and little finger. The little finger was cut off at the second joint, while the third was hanging by a shred. The doctors sewed this back and hope to save it.

The injured man was taken to the office of Dr. T. K. Essington, where the amputation was made. Dr. Carl Evans and Dr. H. Davis assisting, after which he was taken to his home in G. F. Bowers' ambulance.

DIAMOND RING IS RECOVERED BY OFFICERS

Through the prompt action of Patrolmen Burke and Abbott, a diamond ring belonging to Mrs. Allwine, a daughter of Mrs. Thompson, 146 West Main street, was recovered and restored to its owner.

Tuesday Mrs. Thompson employed Charles Spence to do some work about the yard, which included the spading up of a small bit of ground in the back yard.

Close to the noon hour Mrs. Allwine was helping her mother in the kitchen and removed a small diamond ring from her finger, placing it on a ledge at the kitchen sink. She forgot the ring and left the kitchen without taking it with her.

Spence finished up his work in the yard and asked permission to wash his hands at the sink. He then left the house, having been paid for his work.

In the afternoon, about 3 o'clock, Mrs. Allwine missed the ring from her finger and remembered that she had placed it on the sink, but when she went to get the bit of jewelry, it was missing.

The police department was immediately notified and although it was probably four hours after the theft was committed, Patrolmen Burke and Abbott worked diligently and rapidly on the case. Spence was immediately suspected and a search was made for him. An hour or so later Spence was found at the home of a man named Matheny, near the B. & O. station. Matheny and his two sons, together with Spence, were enjoying a spree on Matheny's pension money.

When Spence was placed under arrest he made a quick movement to get rid of the incriminating ring. He tossed it into a corner, but his action was observed by the alert officers and the property recovered. He made a complete denial of the theft of the ring, but was charged with petit larceny at the city prison.

The claim is made by the officers that Matheny's two sons and Spence had robbed the elder Matheny of nearly all the money which he drew at pension time. One of the sons escaped and it is charged that he had the bulk of the money.

Spence had $4 on his person when arrested and the police make the assertion that a part of this belonged to Matheny.

In police court Wednesday morning, Spence pleaded not guilty to a charge of petit larceny and was held to await the action of the grand jury in September. His bond was fixed at $200.

Cost Plus 5%

You Get the Odd Change

The new, Regal, "square-deal" method of pricing shoes at COST PLUS FIVE PER CENT. gives the buyer the benefit of many "odd change" prices.

For example, if the manufacturing cost, of any pair of Regal Shoes, with 5% profit and selling expense added, comes to $3.85, you get that shoe at $3.85—not at the old, traditional, $4.00 price.

The Regal Company has abandoned the old-fashioned idea that good shoes always must be sold at "even money" prices.

Regals give the purchaser exactly what he wants at the smallest profit and lowest price at which shoes of that style and quality can be sold.

Prices range from $335 to $585 and are stamped on the shoes at the factory.
